

Clark County Green Business Program

Sarah Keirns
Clark County Department of Environmental Services
July 24, 2014

CLARK COUNTY GREEN BUSINESS PROGRAM OVERVIEW

- Started in 2011
- Voluntary program open to all businesses in Clark County
- Administered by Clark County Environmental Services
- Assistance, Community, and Recognition

ClarkGreenBiz.com

BECOME A GREEN BUSINESS

- Obtain management support and form a green team.
- Check to make sure there are not any pending enforcement actions.
- Register online and complete web-based assessments
- Once all the minimum requirements in each assessment area are met, schedule an onsite verification visit.

ClarkGreenBiz.com

ASSESSMENTS

Assessments for these areas:

- Community engagement
Volunteerism, employee education
- Energy
Conservation and efficiency, building controls
- Stormwater
Catch basin and storm drain inspections
- Toxics
PPE, Electronics recycling
- Waste and recycling
Mixed recycling, container labels
- Water and wastewater
Low-flow faucets, irrigation

PROGRAM PARTNERS: WASTE CONNECTIONS, CITY OF VANCOUVER, AND CLARK PUBLIC UTILITIES

WHY PARTICIPATE?

- Employee engagement
- On-site technical resources
- Potential cost-savings
- Earn recognition - Marketing and advertising opportunities
- Project support, resources and technical assistance for continuous improvement
- Quarterly educational workshops, tours, newsletter

PORT OF VANCOUVER

Pilot member business, averages 100 hours of volunteer time per employee per year.

Leads the way locally with LEAN manufacturing, and cut waste by 75%.

Earned ISO 14001 Certification and R2 Responsible Recycling Certification

QUESTIONS?

www.ClarkGreenBiz.com

Sarah Keirns

Sustainability Specialist

Sarah.Keirns@clark.wa.gov

360-397-2121 ext. 4300