Port of Vancouver Commission

The Port of Vancouver has been governed by a three-person, publicly elected commission since its founding in 1912. Port commissioners Eric LaBrant, Jack Burkman and Don Orange represent port district citizens. They each serve six-year terms and are responsible for setting port policy. Monthly commission meetings are open to the public.

OUR MISSION

The Port of Vancouver's mission is to provide economic benefit to our community through leadership, stewardship and partnership in marine, industrial and waterfront development.
