

Port of Vancouver
Annual Title VI Update Questionnaire

I. POLICY STATEMENT

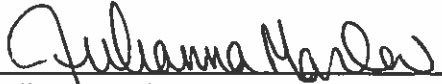

There were no significant changes to the organization's Title VI Plan for the year 2019.

A. Policy of Nondiscrimination

The Port of Vancouver assures that no person shall on the grounds of race, color, national origin, or sex as provided by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1987 (P.L. 100.259) be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any port sponsored program or activity. The Port of Vancouver further assures every effort will be made to ensure nondiscrimination in all of its programs and activities, whether those programs and activities are federally funded or not.

In the event the Port of Vancouver distributes federal aid funds to another entity, the port will include Title VI language in all written agreements and will monitor for compliance.

Title VI compliance is a condition of receipt for federal funds. Assurance of compliance, therefore, falls under the proper authority of the Board of Port Commissioners pursuant to its budgetary authority and responsibility. The Executive Director and Title VI Coordinator are authorized to ensure compliance with provisions of this policy and with the law, including the requirements of 23 Code of Federal Regulation (CFR) 200 and 49 CFR 21.

II. ORGANIZATION, STAFFING, STRUCTURE

- A. Organization: The Port of Vancouver is directed by a board of three elected officials, each serving a six-year term. For the calendar year 2019, Port of Vancouver Commissioners Jerry Oliver, Don Orange and Eric LaBrant represented the citizens of Clark County.

- III. Staffing: See attached organizational chart for details regarding the staffing structure. Significant changes in employment for the past year for transportation related positions included:
Project Manager Brianne Sheron left the port in 2019. Position has not been filled. This position was not a Title VI Specialist.

IV. TITLE VI MONITORING AND REVIEW PROCESS

The Port of Vancouver annually conducts an audit of internal forms and processes as they relate to contracts, purchasing and advertising to ensure the organization's policy of non-discrimination is clearly understood by staff, contractors and customers.

In an effort to ensure the port is proactive and meeting the needs of the community, staff regularly attends a variety of local neighborhood meetings throughout the year, continually seeking input regarding projects and policies.

The Port of Vancouver's website, www.portvanusa.com, includes language regarding Title VI and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and asks individuals requiring reasonable accommodations to request written material in alternative formats and languages by calling the port or emailing info@portvanusa.com. In addition, there is information for the deaf or hard of hearing and opportunities to obtain translation services in a variety of languages to include Russian and Spanish. Individuals requiring a reasonable accommodation are asked to request written material in alternative formats and languages simply by contacting the Port of Vancouver by phone, fax or e-mail.

V. COMPLAINTS

There were no complaints filed with the Port of Vancouver in the past year.

VI. ACCOMPLISHMENT REPORT FOR EACH PROGRAM AREA

A. Planning

- 1) How many consultant projects for planning were awarded and their dollar value?
There was one planning contract awarded by the Port of Vancouver to WSP for 2,372,000.00 with a contract date through 2024.
- 2) Describe efforts made to utilize minority and female consultants and subcontractors in federally funded contracts.
The Procurement team reaches out to organizations with access to minority/female contractors/consultants to see if there are any workshops they can attend/speak at. In 2019 the procurement team and a representative from the engineering team and external affairs teams represented the port at a workshop hosted by Southwest Washington Contractors Associations and shared how to do business with the port by registering for rosters. Additionally, a project forecast was developed and shared for attendees to understand what work may be available in the near future. The port provided a computer and registration support to encourage companies to register on the small works roster and other vendor lists.

- 3) Describe any studies conducted to provide data relative to minority persons, neighborhoods, income levels, physical environments, and travel habits. What assistance did the Title VI Coordinator provide to ensure that Title VI considerations were included in the planning stage?

The Port of Vancouver did not have any such studies conducted in 2019.

- 4) Identify the number of planning hearings held. Describe efforts to ensure citizen participation in the hearings, particularly by minorities and women. How many minorities and women both individually and through their organizations were represented, and their role(s) in the citizen participation effort?

There were no planning hearings in 2019.

B. Research

- 1) How many research projects are currently underway?

There are no research projects underway.

C. Location

- 1) Describe complaints filed, if any, resulting from the choice of highway location decisions, or the procedure used for arriving at the decisions.

Not applicable.

- 2) Identify the titles, ethnicity and gender of employees, and any vacancies, in the Location Program area. Describe efforts of the Title VI Coordinator to increase the representation of minorities and women if they are under-represented. Describe efforts to encourage adequate representation of minorities and women on boards and committees involved in the development of transportation projects.

The port does not employ anyone with specific responsibilities in the Location Program Area. The port also does not have boards or committees in transportation project developments.

- 3) How many Environmental Impact Statements were reviewed? Summarize comments provided on the EIS about adverse impacts on minority, handicapped, elderly, etc., communities.

There was no EIS reviewed in 2019

- 4) How many consultants currently have contracts involving project development activities and their dollar value? How many are minority consultants and their dollar value? Where minorities and women participation are low, describe efforts to increase their participation.

One consultant, GreenWorks, has a contract involving project development activities utilized in the 2019 FY. The term of the contract is expected to be through 2022 and is valued at $2,000,000.00. The consultant did not state they are a minority firm. The Port of Vancouver will continue to advertise all projects and encourage the participation of all qualified consultants.

- 5) How many project location public hearings were held? Describe how these hearings were advertised, including efforts to provide notification to minorities.
The Port of Vancouver held no public hearings for project location in the past year, however, does host regularly scheduled bi-monthly public commissioner meetings. Agency staff updates the elected officials monthly on all relevant projects providing an opportunity for direction, feedback or questions not only from elected officials, but those choosing to attend. These meetings are open to the public and are also televised via the local television network. These meetings are posted on our website and social media platforms.
- 6) Describe efforts to identify minority leaders and encourage them to provide suggestions and ask questions about the location of highways.
Not applicable.
- 7) Was there a need to utilize bilingual advertisements, announcements, notices, etc.?
The Port of Vancouver provides notices that are interpreted in several languages to include, English, Spanish, Russian and Vietnamese. There were no requests for bilingual advertisement in FY 2019

F. Construction and Maintenance

- 1) Describe civil right complaints, if any, the agency received on their competitive bidding procedures, and the corrective action, if any was needed, that the agency has taken. Provide a summary of any concerns raised by MWBE about licensing, pre-qualifications, lack of sub-contracting opportunities, etc.

There were no civil rights complaints or concerns expressed by MWBE regarding the Port of Vancouver in the past year

- 2) Summarize the efforts of the Title VI Coordinator to encourage the use of minority individuals, firms, or agencies for maintenance agreements or construction contracts.

The Port of Vancouver will continue to advertise projects in compliance with Title VI regulations and seek participation in the bidding process by all qualified contractors. Procurement Specialist seeks out DBE firms on small works solicitations from the port's small works roster.

In the next fiscal year, the port anticipates utilizing federal funds for projects. The Port of Vancouver will meet Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (DBE) goals for each applicable project.

- 3) Describe any agency procedures that were reviewed to assure Title VI compliance in subcontract agreements, first and second tier, material supply and equipment lease agreements.

An audit of internal forms and processes as they relate to contracts, purchasing and advertising was conducted. The goal of this internal audit was to ensure the organization's policy of non-discrimination is clearly understood by staff, contractors and customers. The Title VI assurances are part of established boilerplate language for all contracts and is a part of the review checklist to ensure consistency.

- 4) List any significant accomplishment goals and/or action items to be taken during the ensuing year.

The Port of Vancouver will continue to advertise all projects in accordance with Title VI requirements and encourage the participation of all qualified contractors in the bidding process.

The port plans to add solicitations to our social media platforms in 2020 in hoping to reach out to more contractors, professionals, suppliers, etc. We also plan on posting more notification on how to register with the port for our small works roster.

G. Education and Training

- 2) Describe activities undertaken to assure Title VI compliance with contractors and by contractors. (Title VI requirements are to be included in all contracts, subcontracts, and consultant agreements.) Describe reviews made to ensure contractors and consultants are apprised of Title VI requirements and to ensure that contractors and/or consultants are adhering to Title VI requirements.

The Port of Vancouver advertises all appropriate public works solicitations utilizing the Title VI language and encourages all qualified contractors to bid for projects. Construction contracts will be awarded on the basis of lowest responsive and responsible bidder, as well as meeting DBE requirements.

Applicable Federal requirements are included in bid documents and compliance to stated specifications is monitored throughout the project. Contractors are required to follow all provisions of Title VI and require sub-contractors to do the same.

Project managers are familiar with Title VI requirements and conduct regular on-site inspection to ensure compliance. All applicable projects utilizing contractors have established DBE goals. The port is diligent to ensure those goals are met by both contractors and subcontractors.

- 3) Describe Title VI training, if any, that was provided, and how many participants attended, their titles, etc. Describe participation in any other kind of civil rights training (e.g., title and course content), and provide a list of participants by job title (e.g. supervisor, manager, etc.)

The Title VI Coordinator went to WSDOT Title VI Training and has incorporated knowledge into port department meetings. These meetings include several employees throughout the port such as: Project delivery team, maintenance, finance, and external affairs. These teams include managers, superintendents, directors, and specialists.
